This report, Social Expenditure Monitor for Arab States: Towards making budgets more equitable, efficient and effective to achieve the SDGs, resulted from research by a tripartite collaboration between the Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (ESCWA), the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). The respective teams were led by Niranjana Sarangi (Senior Economic Affairs Officer, ESCWA), Vito Intini (Regional Lead Economist and Inclusive Growth and Sustainable Finance Team Leader UNDP) and Samman Thapa (Regional Adviser on Social Policy, UNICEF).

Our deepest gratitude goes to the reviewers of the report, Ghassan Dibeh (Professor, Lebanese American University), Jonas Frank (Regional Advisor on Public Finance Management, International Monetary Fund-Middle East Technical Assistance Center), N. Bhanumurthy (Vice Chancellor, School of Economics in Bangalore, India), Nisreen Salti (Professor, American University of Beirut) and Zafiris Tzannatos (international expert) for their valuable suggestions.

We are grateful to Ibrahim Elbadawi (Managing Director, Economic Research Forum) who moderated a special session at the Arab Forum for Sustainable Development in April 2022 where a high-level panel of experts discussed initial report findings, including H.E. Dr. Nivine El-Kabbag (Minister of Social Solidarity, Egypt), H.E. Dr. Sihem Nemsia (Minister of Finance, Tunisia), H.E. Dr. Mahar Hammad Johan (Deputy Minister of Planning, Iraq), H.E. Dr. Abdelhakim Shibli (Secretary General, Ministry of Finance, Jordan), Dr. Markus Loewe (German Development Institute), and Dr. Zahra Bazzi (Arab NGO Network for Development).

We are also grateful to participants in an expert group meeting in December 2021 who made valuable comments on the analysis, methodology and key messages of the report. Our thanks go to Khalid Abu Ismail (ESCWA), Clive Altshuler (ESCWA), Ruba Arja (ESCWA), Jihane Benamar (Oxford University), Aaron Bermanage (Genesis Analytics), N. Bhanumurthy (School of Economics in Bangalore), Katie Bullman
