

Acknowledgements

The report team is indebted to the League of the Arab States for initiating the present project and for their support.

We acknowledge the role of the Egyptian Ministry of Planning and Economic Development in coordinating engagements with government counterparts, including the Ministry of International Cooperation, the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Communication and Information Technology, the Ministry of Social Solidarity, the Ministry of Trade and Industry, and the General Authority for Investment and Free Zones. The detailed comments received from the various ministries are highly appreciated. The Central Bank of Egypt also provided valuable constructive suggestions and data updates.

We would like to thank the Egyptian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, especially Ambassador Mohamed Idris, former Permanent Representative of Egypt to the United Nations in New York; and Ambassador Ihab Gamaleldin, Permanent Representative of Egypt to the United Nations Office at Geneva, for their exceptional support.

We are particularly grateful to Ms. Rola Dashti, the Executive Secretary of the Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia, for her generous contribution towards the completion of the present report.

The authors benefitted from thorough discussions and extensive dialogue with leading experts and specialists from the following international entities: the International Labor Organization (ILO), the International Trade Centre (ITC), the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UNDESA), the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (ESCWA), the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women), the United Nations Joint Team for Technology and Innovation (UNESCO, UNIDO, ITU), the United Nations Resident Coordinator Office (UNRCO), and the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). The Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) provided informative comments at an early stage of drafting the present report.

Ms. Elena Panova, United Nations Resident Coordinator in Egypt, and her office provided invaluable help and support in facilitating productive engagement with the United Nations system.

The authors are also thankful for the useful comments from the following distinguished experts and researchers: Dr. Wafa Abdelati, Ms. Nadine Abdelraouf, Dr. Khalid Abu-Ismaïl, Dr. Olivier Cattaneo, Dr. Dahlia El-Hawary, Mr. Sylvain Merlen, Dr. Magued Osman, Dr. Rolf Schwarz, Ms. Miral Shehata, Mr. Hisham Taha, Ms. Reham Youssef, and Mr. Ramy Zeid.

The role of the Ford Foundation and Ms. Noha El-Mikawy, the representative of the Ford Middle East and North Africa Office in Cairo, is gratefully acknowledged.

We would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to the Department of Sustainable Development and International Cooperation of the League of Arab States, headed by Minister Plenipotentiary Nada El Agizy and her team for their efforts in providing all kinds of support to the present report. We also thank the Synerjies

Center for International and Strategic Studies and its Executive Director, Mr. Khaled El Sayed, for their dedicated support during the process.

We thank ESCWA for their dedicated efforts and excellent work in editing the English version of the present report. We would also like to thank Al-Ahram Center for Translation and Publishing for translating the report from English to Arabic.

The report team recognizes the much-appreciated assistance by the Office of Mr. Mahmoud Mohieldin, the United Nations Secretary-General's Special Envoy on Financing the 2030 Agenda.

